Therefore, our young people must be trained by men and women who love God if we want them to be religiously trained." The message was very inspirational and thrilling. Emphatically the speaker declared that no man will ever fail who stands for right and righteousness. He closed his forceful message.

The life and work of the late Dr. J. W. Ligon, who for some thirteen years was the honored Moderator of the Wake Association was then memorized. Dr. Ligon as a Moderator was related by Dr. N. F. Roberts. Three kinds of leaders were drawn out by Dr. Roberts.

(1) Downward leader. Bro. Ligon was not a leader of this type.

(2) Leaders who pull along on a leved.—Dr. Ligon was not satisfied with sailing on flowery beds of ease.

(3) Leaders who go upward. This was the type of our beloved friend and brother Dr. J. W. Ligon, declared the forceful man of God.

Dr. Ligon as a pastor, was discussed by Bro. T. J. Seawell. For fourteen years he pastored the Springfield Baptist Church. He preacher the gospel of the Son of God declared the speaker. He lived a consistent Christian among his people.

Dr. Watkins called Rev. A. B. Johnson to the chair and spoke of Dr. Ligon as an Editor. 'Dr. Ligon as an Editor was bold; and out of that grew a lion—heart courage to speak the truth." His message portrayed many good thoughts on the life and work of Dr. Ligon as Editor of the Union Reformer. "He had hope in his people as a race." declared the speaker. In the closing remarks of the speaker, he urged the people to read the Union Reformer as the official organ of the Baptists of North Carolina.

Professor J. L. Levister of Raleigh then came forward and in chosen words spoke briefly on Dr. Ligon's Life as a teacher. Reviewing his teachership with its beginning in Wake Forest, and there a success, then coming to Raleigh; the attention of the audience was called to the fact of Dr. Ligon's instrumentality in bringing about the Graded and High schools in Raleigh for the colored people. He stood as a teacher of the highest class,' the speaker declared in his closing remarks. Nearer my God to Thee was very beautifully sung by the congregation. Rev. G. A Mial lead in fervent prayer during the pausing hour of humble bowed heads and submissive wills to God. On motion that Miss M. A. Burwell and Rev. G. F. Donald be granted permission to represent the State work in the afternoon session of the Association.

The scholarly Dr. O. S. Bullock was then presented to preach the Missionary sermon. He was accompanied on the rostrum by Rev. W. C. Pope of Raleigh. Dr. Bullock chose for a text Isaiah 6:8. "Here am I; send me." Isaiah saw the Lord when Uzziah died. Some Uzziahs need to die today and the people will see God. The people must get a vision through the minister of the gospel. The church must catch a vision through its pastor in order to put over the program of Christ. When the people see God by faith then they will pay more money, and really feel like shouting, declared Dr. Bullock. The speaker having ended his forceful and inspirational message, the congregation sang, "I heard the voice of Jesus say. come unto me and rest."

Bros. W. H. Ray and I. W. Holder then came forward and took a collection to the amount of $33.00. Benediction by Rev. W. C. Pope.

THURSDAY—Afternoon Session

Devotionals were conducted by Revs. M. G. Watkins and G. W. Todd. Bro. Watkins lined hymn No. 271 in the Baptist hymnal: "All hail the power of Jesus name, etc. Brother Todd then read Psalm second division. Following which Bro. Watkins offered prayer. The congregation joined in singing a selection lead by Rev. Todd, "I'm Going Through."

Echoes from the field were then heard from the following brethren: R. B. Mangrum, J. W. Freeman. W. H. Riddick, Jefferson Jones, T. S. Stokes, J. W. M. Stones, H. R. Snow, G. B. Briges, J. H. Ellis, W. Jones, Jno. Thompson, W. C. High. I. Cook Rev. O. L. Pair, Jno. Williams, Taylor (Olive Branch Church) C. E. Hicks, W. S. Mosely, Walter Crews, J. G. Ligon, Dr. J. B. Davis, S. Dunn, and Theo. Chavis.

The report of Committee on place was made. Adopted. (See report.)

The Committee on Temperance reported. (Adopted). (See report.)

The moderator presented Miss M. A. Burwell, Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Convention of North Carolina. In well chosen words she spoke of the State work among the women and urged the churches of Wake County to meet the next annual sitting at the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, July 1926.

Rev. G. F. Donald, field worker under the Baptist Board of Promotion spoke very fluently of the field work and urged the churches of Wake Association to double their efforts to put over the Christian Educational program. Words of encouragement concerning the work were made by Dr. O. S. Bullock and Prof J. L. Levister.

The following Committee reports were made:

The Woman's Auxiliary Committee on Finance made its report and turned over to the Association $40.00. Adopted.

and asked for the support of the Association. An announcement of the next meeting of Wake Ministerial Union was made by the Rev. E. Wimberly.

The newly elected editor of the Union Reformer, Rev. W. C. Pope was presented by the Moderator. Bro. Pope said in part "that it will be his purpose to live up to the standard of the late, sainted editor, and serve the state in the best capacity possible."

Bro. R. P. Mangrum expressed his determination to the delegation in the support of the newly elected officers, and commended the brethren for their wisdom of choice.

Rev. A. A. Morrisey made remarks of joy in the fact that North Carolina Baptists now own a paper called the Union Reformer. He asked every Baptist to read its columns.

Rev. B. T. Jordan of Wilson's First Baptist Church reviewed the work of the committee on Place and assured the delegation of the Association that all things will be ready for suitable entertainment of the Association in its next annual meeting to be held at his church in Wilson, beginning Wednesday before the 3rd Sunday in August, 1926.

A prevailing motion placed upon the Executive Board the duty of setting the time for the next meeting of the Extra Session of the Wake Association.

REPORT OF HOME MISSION BOARD

By Rev. G. W. Moore, D. D.

We the members of the Home Mission Board desire to make the following report:

The fields of mission today are white for harvest. The harvest is great, but laborers are few. Not only the the foreign field is in great need of constructive efforts of mission. but the home land should not be overlooked.

Therefore, we recommend:

1. That a more comprehensive survey of the Home Mission field be made in real search of its needs.

2. Since the church was left in the hands of the ministers of the gospel we therefore recommend that at times best suited to conditions sermons will be preached indoctrinating our people (Baptist) in the faith and practice of our church, in order that they may be able to stand against the enroads of the enemies who are operating against us.

3. Knowing the aims of Shaw University and her strides for this end we recommend that a steady call be made for her financial, and spiritual development.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Brother Moderator and members of the Wake Baptist Association, your Sunday School desires to submit the following:

The Sunday School is a big business in the affairs of Christ's Kingdom.

1. It should strive to get pupils into its ranks so as to teach them the word of God.

2. Since it is the School of the Church, the church should therefore be recognized in all of its social as well as religious programs.

3. The pastor in charge ought therefore, be consulted, and he should have a very clear knowledge of all literature before the purchase is made.

4. The ultimate aim of the Sunday School teacher must be to teach the gospel.

We recommend: (1) That every pastor in the bounds of the Wake Baptist Association take an active part in the Sunday School of his church or churches. (a) Where the School lacks such, that the pastor with the full co-operation of the Superintendent, will organize a weekly teachers' meeting.

2. That each Sunday School by the work of the pastor, be raised to the modern standard, departments as follows:

(a) Cradle Roll. (b) Kindergarten. (c) Primary, Intermediate and Bible Classes.

3. In the Teacher Training Class we recommend as text book the one on teaching, published by the National Baptist Publishing Board, Nashville, Tenn.. whose author is Dr. S. N. Vass.

4. To maintain the very close relationship and to strengthen the evangelistic program, we therefore, recommend that the Wake County Sunday School Convention send its money, Home and Foreign Mission to the Wake Baptist Association.

5. That the minutes of the Wake County Sunday School Convention shal be in combination with the Wake Baptist Association.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. Geo. S. Stokes, Chairman; Dr. G. W. Moore, Bro. T. J. Sewell, Dr. A. W. Pegues, Bro. Guyon Perry.

REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL BOARD

By Rev. C. F. Pope

I congratulate myself to have this opportunity extended me to come before this great Association to outline a few thoughts on education. This Association stands for the fundamental principles of civilation.

My conception of Education is as follows:

1. An education ought to be Christian.
2. Education teaches economy; one learns how to do things at saving of time, money and energy.
3. Education is a preparation for efficient service.
4. Education helps one to appreciate the aesthetic. the beautiful things of life.
5. The drawing influences are to make people better.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. C. F. Pope, Chairman; Revs. C. C. Clark, J. W. Jones, J. C. Love, J. W. Powell.

REPORT OF FOREIGN MISSION BOARD

This is a Missionary Baptist Association, therefore, its objective is mission. Jesus Christ himself said "Go ye, into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." The whole world, not a part.

We recommend the following:

1. That constant prayer be made to the Almighty God for the missionaries on the field.
2. That the churches will stress the collection for missions more and more and strive to increase same to send to Foreign Mission fields.
3. That all pastors sometimes during the year preach sermons pertaining to foreign missions, informing their people of the different field and the laborers thereon.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. A. T. Price, Chairman; Bro. I. C. Jeffries, Dr. L. T. Christmas, Bro. F. R. Freeman, Dr. M. C. Ransom, Rev. Geo. S. Stokes.

REPORT OF MINISTERIAL BOARD

Submitted by Dr. N. F. Roberts, Chairman

The demand for a prepared ministry is rapidly increasing. Much money is now being spent for the training of worthy young men who are pursuing courses in ministerial study. The Holy Spirit does not do for us the things that we can do for ourselves. Therefore, we recommend the following:

1. That a thorough and reverent study of God's word, the Bible, be made.

2. That all men having the ministry in view to thoroughly prepare themselves to meet the standard as outlined by this Association.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. N. F. Roberts, Chairman; Dr. A. W. Pegues, Rev. A. T. Price, Dr. G. W. Watkins, Rev. E. Wimberly, Dr. O. S. Bullock, Rev. G. W. Todd.

TEMPERANCE

We your Committee on Temperance beg to submit the following report:

We now have national Phohibition laws, this does not mean, that we as Christians should lose interest in the temperance work.

Law in itself does not reform. It simply restrains to reform a person; you must make him see his wrong and the consequences. "The wages of sin is death." Therefore, we as an Association, urge upon our members, ministers of the gospel, and teachers to double their efforts in stamping out this evil. That we will teach the effects of narcotics such as alcohol and tobacco in all its forms upon the nervous system.

That we recommend to our school authorities to employ no teacher in our public schools who practice these intemperate habits.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. N. F. Roberts, Chairman; Rev. G. F. Donald, Bros. H. H. Person, Jefferson Jones, J. W. M. Stone, Walter Crews, A. McClain.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Mr. President, delegates, ladies and gentlemen:

Under the kind providence of Almighty God, we are permitted to assemble in another annual session of the Wake County Sunday School Convention. We meet as Sunday School workers imbued with the spirit of the Great Teacher, whose last command was "Go ye into all the world and make Disciples of all nations, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

As Sunday School workers we have a high and wholly mission to teach and make Disciples for Jesus. The Sunday School is an auxiliary of the church, or it is the church school whose aim is teaching and training Christian character, and whose text book is the Bible. If in this aim we fail, our efforts are useless. If we would succeed in teaching and trainig those in our Sunday Schools whose ultimate aim is development of Christian character, we must have our forces well organized and our workers well trained. Superintendents of our Sunday Schools should be well trained Sunday School workers. Indeed they should be the best trained workers obtainable. They should not only have executive ability, but should also have progressive ideas about the work, and should keep in view the high ideals and lofty aims of the Sunday School work. He should have a vision of the Sunday School with all of its departments working in harmony, and fulfilling its high aim In order to bring about this condition, we must have frequent conferences with the teachers and officers, acquainting them with their purposes and desires, enlisting their sympathy and cooperation for the same. He should seek to find out their point of view concerning the work and obtain their helpful suggestions. By doing this he will secure team work among his associates, without without which, no Sunday School can succeed.

The pastor's help and influence cannot be ignored by the Superintendent without great loss to the school. In fact, we do not see how a Sunday School can accomplish its high aim without the pastor taking his rightful position in the work. The pastor's rightful place is to council and advise the Superintendent And encourage the church members to attend the School. For the pastor should be the most experienced person you have in Sunday School work. Besides, he is the most interested person in the success of the school. If he be a real pastor. Therefore, he should always take his rightful place in the school when ever he is present. The Superintendent should seek his advice and help as a pastor is ex-officio. He will be pleased to see that you recognize his rightful position and will be glad to render any service he can.

Again, the success of the work depends much upon the quality and efficiency of the teachers. Sunday School teachers must be imbued with the spirit of the Great Teacher if they would train their pupils to develop Christian character. We regret to say too little of this character at the present time is in our school. This is due largely to the fact of so few of our teachers being prepared for the work of teaching. In order for a Sunday School to succeed in its aim and purpose it must have teachers prepared intellectually, morally and spiritually.

Prepared teachers are the great need of our schools today. This need can be supplied only by the teachers pursuing a teachers training course.There should be a Teachers' Training Course and Class in every Sunday School conducted by the competent teacher who may be the Superintendent or the pastor.For this question of efficient teachers in our school is one that claims the serious attention of both the superintendent and pastor. But the greater responsibility is on the pastor, who should see that the standard of the teacher is raised because the pastor is responsible for the Bible instruction among members of his church.

Another means of developing our Sunday School work is the Sunday School institute. These institutes could be held four times during the year at four central points of the county. These institutes should be conducted by a well experienced and progressive Sunday School workers. In these institutes our Sunday School workers would receive information and inispiration which would develop a larger enthusiasm and wholesome atmosphere which would cause our Sunday School work to flourish.

Delegates and co--workers, we have come up to this Convention from our various fields of labor to exchange our ideas and experience with each other and get new ideas and ideals and carry them back to our schools and put them into operation. We have come to get information, inspiration and a larger enthusiasm for the work of another year. Then let us give to ourselves this task and give attention to the work which we have in mind. But so conduct ourselves at this session and make it serve well the purpose for which we have met.

WHAT ARE WE HANDING DOWN TO PROSPERITY?

Just what we are doing, saying and living, and this in turn will either blight or foster a character worth while in these who are to come after us. If we would give more attention to the purity and fitness of ourselves for a worthwhile service and then live in obedience to the command of God, in all things, we do not fear the outcome upon prosperity. Take the life of Christ, while on earth. Paul, the Apostle and other good men and women, and note the affect of their lives upon the world. Some condemn religion and the teachings of the Bible. Some register their denial in words, others in actions and a life devoid of worthy results. Others acknowledge its teachings and claim to be doers of the inspired Word. But we fail to see the good results from such lives. Now, a good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, it must be good. We must prove our callings and motives to the right and by the affect they have on others. We must discuss and plan great things period. But proper results are not forth coming. Take our rural districts, saying nothing about cities and towns and real live, genuine teaching of word of God and healthful living that makes a foundation for the development and blessings of the word of God in fruitful lives worth of the name as followers of Christ, is sadly lacking. Religious teaching, if done right, ought to bring about peace, love and harmony in any community and make a high standard of living, according to the principles taught and lived up to. If the Sunday School or church in any community are not what they should be, it is largely the fault of the leaders. We need more live men and women of a right standard of life, a reasonable portion of common sense and intelligence who will faithfully devote their lives and service to the Master's cause. And when this is done a little leaven will leaven the whole lump. We call on you preachers, deacons, teachers and parents to take this matter to heart and do your duty, and we will have better results and the and the work of Christ will go forward with blessing and lasting results for the future in making religious teaching the means of carrying the purpose of Christ to worthy fulfillment. Yea for the purpose for which He died, rose again and still lives, and ere long will thrust in his cycle and gather unto Himself and His Kingdom the fruits of His harvest. Brethren, let us get off our steps and big speeches and get down to the real service in the cause of Christ and not for what we have been too long doing, showing self void of real purpose for good.

At the last sitting of the Convention I advised certain suggestions to be taken up and tried out, but have heard nothing from them since. It is useless to purpose and plan if we are not going to do or carry our plans. Unless we get results that count we are a failure, and no amount of talk and show will invoke us our success. The world is calling for the real thing that solves the problem, and we must get it in our work. It's what Christ commissioned the twelve Apostles for. We must triumph gloriously or ingominous defeat. If we hand down silver and gold of the essence of the pure word of life, which will bring in its overflowing cargoes of fruitage of Devine stamp for the Kingdom of God and Christ. __

Brethren, my efforts and prayers shall be for better and faithful service without ceasing. Now, if I am to be the Moses to lead this cause to success, where are the Aarons and his helpers who will hold up my hands for a voyage across the Red Sea and a successful journey on to better attainments. I promise you by God's help I will steer for the Promise Land of an unending obedience, in the Kingdom of God. Will you help me?
